

Adenauer-Socialist Feud Rocks Germany

Schumacher Barred From Parliament

Bonn, Germany, Nov. 25.—(AP)—A bitter personal feud between Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Social Democratic Leader Kurt Schumacher over the new Allied-German agreement rocked the west German Republic today.

Schumacher was barred from the next 20 days' sittings of Parliament—which means he will be out until about next March—by calling Adenauer "chancellor of the allies" in debate.

A full scale crisis was averted only by the social Democrats' decision not to boycott parliament in protest. "My exclusion strongly endangers further collaboration in this house," said Schumacher, one-armed, one-legged chief of the opposition to Adenauer's coalition government. "The social Democratic party has not yet decided how it will react, but it will react."

Order Issued By Elders

The exclusion order was issued by the council of elders, a rules committee made up of representatives of all parties, which held he insulted Adenauer by implying the Chancellor was a puppet of the western powers.

"The most serious insult imaginable" was Adenauer's view. The Christian Democratic leader, 74, told newsmen he would have accepted an apology from Schumacher, but none was forthcoming.

The parliament voted down, in a tumultuous session that ended at dawn, a social Democratic motion challenging the authority of Adenauer to sign the agreement. Boos, catcalls and banging of desk tops marked the debate.

Work Year Without Changes

The western allied high commissioners announced the German Republic is to work for a year in the frame work of its newly expanded powers, without further revisions.

The negotiations with Adenauer are complete and the 10-point pact they signed yesterday is not to be regarded as "a stepping stone for further demands," the representatives of the United States, Britain and France told a news conference.

Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British high commissioner at the news conference. With him were French Commissioner Andre Francois-Poncet and the deputy U.S. commissioner, Maj. Gen. George P. Hays. U.S. Commissioner John J. McCloy was in London.

Girl Marries Real Neil Henry After Leaving Imposter

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Joan Schettler, 19, who married "Neil Henry" July 2, today married his elder brother—Neil Henry.

The earlier marriage was annulled last week.

Neil, 21, came home from merchant marine service to find his brother, Tom, under legal age at 17, had wooed and wed Joan using Neil's name and birth certificate.

Neil demanded his name be returned to bachelor status.

But during annulment proceedings love blossomed and when Tom's marriage was dissolved Neil and Joan promptly announced they would wed.

Superior Judge Rudolph Desort, who granted the annulment, performed the ceremony.

Tom refused to be best man.

Five Released As Man They Blinded Pleads For Them

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—(AP)—A blind man groped his way to the bar of a quarter sessions court today and won a plea of mercy for five taxicab drivers convicted in an assault that cost him his eyesight.

Clair Reed Jr., 33, blinded during the wildest taxi strike last February, stood before the judge and said of his assailants:

"I don't feel that these boys should go to jail. I don't have any feeling of vengeance. The loss of my sight has hindered me very much but I expect to overcome that handicap. I don't hold any grudge."

The plea, plus the fact arrangements had been made to pay approximately $8,000 to Reed, resulted in the five defendants being set free under two years' probation and $100 fine.

Four of the five were convicted of mayhem. They were Mario Nicola, 24; James Coin, 27; Harold Epstein, 31, and George Cullen, 37. Mario Mariani was found guilty of aggravated assault and battery and conspiracy.

General French Strike Comes To Calm Close

Paris, Nov. 25.—(AP)—France's 24-hour general strike drew near a calm close tonight—far short of its goal of nation-wide paralysis.

The strike, called by the country's two big labor unions, succeeded in shutting down most mills, factories, mines and ports. It partly disrupted transportation, putting millions of bus, train and subway riders afoot. But there was business as usual in nearly all retail stores, banks and offices, whose employees the unionists had invited to join the strike.

Hundred of thousands of persons walked, bicycled or hitch-hiked to work. Food supplies were unaffected. Telephone and domestic light and gas services were normal nearly everywhere.

The two unions, the non-communist Workers Force of 900,000 members and the communist General Confederation of Labor, with 2,200,000, called the strike before dawn today to enforce demands for more pay, cost of living bonuses and unfreezing of government wage controls.

Opinion as to the effectiveness of the strike differed.

"It was a fiasco," said socialist cabinet member Eugene Thomas, head of the French postoffice.

"The results are very satisfactory," retorted Workers Force Secretary General Robert Botherue. The union chief, however, said he could not yet give any figures on the number of workers actually idle.

Only one clash was reported from the whole country. At Dijon, police used tear gas bombs to disperse some 2,000 CGT strikers who sought to break through police lines guarding the Prefecture building.

Parts Of Capital Darkened As B-17 Hits Electric Line

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—An aircraft B-17 plane from Omaha clipped an electric line while approaching Bolling Field tonight and plunged a big area of the city into darkness but the six men aboard landed safely.

The Congress Heights and Bellevue sections of Southwest Washington lost all power.

Capt. William J. Lookadoo, public relations officer at Bolling, identified the pilot as Lt. Col. W. H. Campbell, 32, of Chicago. The plane was from Offutt Base, Omaha.

With Campbell, Capt. Lookadoo said, were Maj. J. R. Parker, co-pilot; technical Sgt. John C. Caputo, crew chief, and three passengers. Capt. A. H. Grinstead, Jr., Lt. Col. Harry Rivkins and first Lt. Donald Mathews of Anchorage, Alaska.

Lookadoo said the only address he had for Parker, Caputo, Grinstead and Rivkins was Offutt Base.

One eyewitness said the plane apparently missed an apartment building on Nichols avenue by about 15 feet before hitting 4,000 volt wires, 40 feet above the ground.

The power interruption occurred about 4:50 p.m., CST shortly before the supper hour.

Stoppage of power in a wide area threw grocery and other stores into darkness during the early evening rush-hour of weekend shoppers.

Cash registers operated electrically failed, and at first all customers within stores were kept there and the doors were locked. Then stop-gap methods of handling collections and change-making were evolved and the customers were allowed to leave.

Truman, McGrath Meet To Discuss Atomic Secrecy

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—President Truman talked with Attorney General McGrath and Chairman McMahon (D-Conn.) of the congressional atomic committee today about problems of safeguarding secret information vital to national security.

McGrath said when they left the White House that Mr. Truman instructed him to take all possible steps to see that those secrets are guarded.

The attorney general and McMahon brushed aside questions as to what caused the particular concern at this time.

"The problem of operating this whole atomic project is and has been a most difficult one," McMahon said. "I would say that the president wants to emphasize that classified (secret) information be kept inviolate."

Asked specifically what had brought up the matter, McGrath replied: "Anything further will have to come from other sources."

BRITISH JETS COLLIDE

Tangmere, England, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Two of Britain's twin jet meteor fighters rammed head on in a fog today and crashed in dense woods.

Both pilots, whose names were not immediately disclosed, were killed.

It was the third crash of meteors this week.

Youngsters like chopped salted peanuts added to raincoat-meal tookies.

Third Panama President In Six Days Names Cabinet

Panama, Panama, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Dr. Arnulfo Arias, latest president in Panama's dizzying series of coups, named a cabinet tonight. The United States announced curiously it has no diplomatic relations with the new regime.

This little Central American republic's third president in six days, the fiery, 40-year-old surgeon selected his ministers and denied he was anti-American.

The big question here was whether Col. Jose Remon, the police chief who installed Arias, would remain in office now that the new president has been proclaimed by congress. Remon's action amazed Panama. He and Arias had been bitter enemies since 1941, when the police chief ousted Arias as president. The police are this nation's only armed force, and he who heads the police wields power.

Remon and his sub-chiefs publicly told Arias his position were at the president's disposal. Arias did not comment.

How Arias will fare without U. S. recognition remains to be seen. The United States did not formally break relations with this country, which is bisected by the strategic Panama canal.

Assistant Secretary of State Edward G. Miller simply announced to a Washington news conference that the present U. S. ambassador here, Monnett Davis, is accredited to a government "which no longer exists."

Escaped Convict Steals Personal Auto Of Policeman

St. Louis, Nov. 25.—(AP)—A three-state search was ordered today for an escaped Nebraska convict who disarmed one Missouri highway patrolman and apparently stole the personal automobile on another.

"We're a little provoked at him," said an embarrassed official of the patrol.

William Dunkin, 36, a trusty who escaped Wednesday from the Nebraska penitentiary at Lincoln, was stopped for questioning yesterday by Trooper Herbert Groff in St. Louis county.

While Groff was questioning two hitch-hikers Dunkin had with him, Dunkin seized a riot gun from Groff's squad car and then took the convict escaped in the car he was driving when stopped. The machine was found abandoned today near DesPeres, Mo., in St. Louis county. A tag on the steering wheel indicated it is owned by the University of Nebraska, conservation and survey department.

The personal automobile of Trooper J. B. Upton of the patrol, whose wife had parked it at DesPeres while visiting friends, was stolen and authorities expressed belief Dunkin took it after abandoning the Nebraska machine.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Edward H. Lehmann, 59, auditor of the American League since 1927 and one of the best known business officials in baseball, died today of heart disease.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Montgomery Ward and company, retail and mail order firm, today announced an extra dividend of $1 a share of common stock will be paid Jan. 14 to shareholders of record Dec. 5. This payment will be in addition to a regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share of common stock.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Auctioneers were busy at the international amphitheater today, seeking top prices for 300 stags rejected animals were among 705 well-finished animals brought to the exposition by farm boys and girls. The big livestock show opens tomorrow.

After culling out the 380 rejects, officials approved the remaining 325 steers for entry in the barnyard bigtime.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The national chairman of the American veterans committee (AVC) said today that any merger of the AVC with the American legion would be "more appropriate but equally unlikely" as proposed AVC merger with the Amvets.

Gilbert A. Harrison, Washington, D.C., addressed the AVC at the opening session of its fourth annual convention. He made the remark in discussing unfruitful merger talks between the AVC and the Amvets, or the American Veterans of World War II.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The nickel cup of coffee was rapidly disappearing from the Chicago restaurant scene today.

John R. Thompson company, which has been selling coffee at a nickel since it started business in 1891, raised the price to seven cents. Drug stores and other restaurants were also boosting their prices.

An official of the Thompson chain, which operates 80 restaurants through the east and mid-west, said price increases in other cities are likely within the next couple of weeks.

Firestone Company Increases Prices

Akron, O., Nov. 25.—(AP)—Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. today became the second major tire producer to announce price increases of three and one-half per cent.

Tires and tubes for passenger cars and trucks will be increased that amount Dec. 1, said the Firestone announcement. It added:

"The prices are too low in relation to existing costs."

Seiberling Rubber Co. put the same increase into effect today.

Other major producers were expected to follow the trend. Less than a month ago all made similar increases in prices.

UN Passes US-British Program For Peace

Say Cominform Plans Destruction Of Tito

New York, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Secret reports reaching diplomatic quarters here say the Soviet-led Cominform has a plan on paper to destroy Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia some time between Christmas and Easter.

These quarters said the reports, gathered from intelligence and diplomatic agents of western powers, have been made available to the U. S. departments of state and defense where they presumably will receive the intensive study given any reported rumblings behind the Iron Curtain.

In Washington, however, State department press officer Michael J. McDermott said the department "has no such information." He added that the department also does not know any "American sources" that have such information.

Ales Belder, deputy foreign minister of Yugoslavia, said his government was aware of such a plot and has "the situation well in hand."

On the other side, Julius Katz, Suchy of Poland, a Cominform country, denounced the reports as a "deliberate plant by the United States secret service" to keep the attention of he world focused on Soviet-Yugoslav relations and try to foment a third world war.

American diplomatic sources say the aid from Russian dominated countries, kept ostensibly and ostentatiously free of direct Russian participation, would take two immediate forms, the reports say.

First, parachute troops from the satellite countries would descend on Tito's capital at Belgrade. At the same time armored forces would pour out of Hungary and across the Danube into Yugoslavia.

Airfields in Hungary have been rebuilt to handle troop-carrier planes and such planes are said to have been moved into that Danubian country from the Soviet Union.

Pact Nations Map Defense Strategy

12 Members Must Okay Plan Made By Military Heads

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The military high commands of the 12 North Atlantic pact nations have worked out a broad strategic plan for the defense of western Europe and North America.

Formal adoption by defense ministers of the Atlantic bloc governments is expected at a meeting in Paris next week.

This was reported today by Gen. Omar Bradley, top ranking American military leader and chairman of the Military committee recently organized by the Atlantic pact countries.

Plan Is Broad Statement

Authoritative informants said the plan is a broad statement of the basic defense concept around which detailed arrangements can be worked out later. It is not, according to these informants, a "war plan" in the usual sense of specifying numbers of men, units and equipment which would be employed in any emergency.

Agreement on such an overall defense policy is one of the conditions which must be met before the United States can go through with the billion dollar arms aid program which congress voted last session.

Congress specified in the law that pending agreement on general defense strategy under the Atlantic treaty only $100,000,000 of the total sum appropriated could actually be delivered to Europe in the form of military supplies.

To Meet In Paris Nov. 29

The Military committee of the Atlantic treaty powers is to meet in Paris Nov. 29 and the defense committee of which Secretary of Defense Johnson is American member is to meet Dec. 1. Both Johnson and Bradley plan to fly to Paris this weekend.

Bradley discussed the outlook for the meetings in a statement which the broadcast today over the State Department's Voice of America program. He also discussed the atomic bomb in connection with its possible usefulness "as a deterrent to aggression."

He declared that without underestimating the atomic weapon as a "force for peace" he considered it "fair to say that the North Atlantic treaty organization of 12 nations shows promise of being an even greater deterrent to future aggression."

Driver Killed As Train Hits Truck

Monsanto, Ill., Nov. 25.—(AP)—A Gulf, Mobile and Ohio passenger train plowed into a dump truck at a grade crossing at Monsanto today, killing truck driver Louis C. Faus, 38, Waterloo, Ill.

Fragments of flying glass and steel struck railroad engineer Charles Bullard, 67, of Murphysboro, Ill., and he was taken to St. Mary's hospital in East St. Louis.

A doctor and two nurses from St. Louis City hospital were killed at another crossing in Monsanto yesterday when their car collided with a switch engine.

At Least 181 Are Killed In Violent Holiday Accidents

By The Associated Press

A record high total of at least 181 persons were killed in violent accidents during the Thanksgiving Day holiday.

The 181 toll reported in an Associated Press survey includes 17 killed in traffic accidents and 53 in cellanous mishaps between 7 a.m. (local time) Wednesday and midnight Thursday.

The 58 include victims of fires, plane crashes, shootings, falls, hunting accidents, and 14 killed in Alabama tornadoes.

The 181 figure is the highest in Associated Press Thanksgiving Day records. The previous high is 128 in 1947. The traffic death toll surpassed the 1941 Thanksgiving record of 115 persons killed on the highways.

Last year 114 were killed on Thanksgiving Day, in traffic accidents.

The average traffic death toll in a 24 hour period, based on National Safety Council records for the first nine months of 1949, is 52. That includes deaths of persons who were injured but died some time later.

Thus the 123 total for the 30-hour Thanksgiving period is 50 per cent greater.

Majority Is Largest Ever On Big Issue

Lake Success, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The United Nations beat down decisively today a Soviet peace plan which carried a clause accusing the United States and Britain of preparing for a third World War.

Then, by 53 votes to 5, the U.N. approved a counter American-British program for peace.

The margin for the American-British proposal was the biggest the West has ever received in the U.N. on a major question. The Russian bloc of five stood alone against it and Yugoslavia abstained.

Soviet Plan Downed 41-6

The heart of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky's proposal was knocked out 41 to 6 in the 59-nation political committee. Arab Yemen alone voted with the Moscow group in favor of a section calling on the United States, Britain, France, China and the Soviet Union to draw up a pact of peace. The fight will be renewed finally in the assembly proper, but there was no prospect of a change in the voting.

Vishinsky's attack on Britain and America, in the first paragraph of his resolution, was beaten by 52 votes to five, with Yemen and Yugoslavia abstaining.

Some delegates interpreted the committee vote as a personal blow at Vishinsky, who has bitterly attacked the British and Americans as preparing for a new war and then, almost in the same breath, called on them to swear to a new peace pact among the five big powers—the Soviet Union, France, Britain, the United States and China.

Expression Of Confidence

They saw the heavy vote for the West as an expression of confidence from the small and medium countries and endorsement of pleas by Warren R. Austin of the United States and Britain's Hector McNeill for the Russians to roll up their fur curtain and cooperate with the rest of the world.

For the second time in three days, a U. N. majority beat down a Soviet demand for the U. N. to approve a Moscow-style program for atomic control.

On Wednesday the General Assembly meeting in Flushing defeated a Soviet proposal for the 11-nation Atomic Energy Commission to resume work and draw up two atomic conventions proposed by the Soviet Union.

The political committee, the main body of the General Assembly, then today beat down a Russian statement in the peace pact plan saying any further delay in banning atomic bombs and establishing "appropriate strict international control" would be inadmissible.

Gargantua, Famed Circus Gorilla, Dies In His Cage

Miami, Fla., Nov. 25.—(AP)—Gargantua the great, frightful gorilla who awoke forty million circus fans, died today in his air conditioned cage.

It wasn't known just what killed the 550 pound five foot six inch gorilla, who had lived to ripe old age for gorillas in captivity—of 19 or 20 years. It possibly was pneumonia, complicated by cancer.

Gargantua's colorful career as a circus star came to an end on the same day as the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus brought its 1949 season to an end. Misfortune has struck the circus twice on its final day in Miami. In 1947 the famed aerial troupe, The Alzans, plunged 73 feet seriously injuring three performers.

Jose Tomas, Gargantua's keeper for the last ten years, found him at 9 a.m. today, huddled on his stomach in a corner of the cage. Tomas said the body was still warm.

After the gorilla was pronounced dead, the huge glassed-in cage was shrouded in canvas. It remained in the menagerie tent while thousands walked past unaware of the tragedy. The afternoon and night performances concluded the circus' annual tour of the nation.

PARDONS 13 PRIESTS

Prague, Nov. 25.—(AP)—President Klement Gottwald today pardoned 13 more Catholic priests, some in jail and some awaiting prosecution, it was officially announced.

WATCH '50 ELECTIONS IN THREE BIGGEST STATES FOR 1952 CLUES

In 1950 New York, California and Pennsylvania, the three most populous states, will each elect a governor and a senator. These contests not only will furnish important clues to presidential 1952; they may furnish some of the candidates for the White House.

This year's election results were hardly cold when James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, announced his candidacy for the California governorship. He is bidding chiefly for the Democratic nomination, but under California's strange cross-filing system he will also put his name on the Republican side.

If Gov. Earl Warren, the Republican incumbent, seeks a third term the West Coast battle may be hard fought. As the defeated GOP nominee for vice president in 1948, Warren suffered a set back in prestige. But he has rebuilt his strength in his home state and must be regarded as a presidential possibility unless he decides to leave politics.

Another Roosevelt, Franklin D., Jr., may figure in the New York governorship race. Now in Congress, after a highly successful vote-getting campaign last spring, the younger Roosevelt is being widely discussed as a likely Democratic choice for the berth now held by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Dewey's plans are veiled in doubt. Most political observers viewed the defeat of Sen. John Foster Dulles in New York as a personal setback for Dewey. Dulles was Dewey's own choice and the governor campaigned for him vigorously. Had Dulles won, it was generally believed Dewey would have considered himself on the comeback trail toward a possible third straight nomination for the presidency. Now it is not even certain whether he will try again for the governorship.

As for Pennsylvania, Republican Gov. James Duff does not plan to seek re-election. Beyond that prospect, nothing much can be said about the contest there. Once a GOP bastion, Pennsylvania today is one of the hottest political battlegrounds in the country. It shifts allegiance with surprising suddenness. Whoever its 1950 gubernatorial candidates are, the race will be tough.

The senatorial races in these three states are shaping up slowly and little presidential timber is in sight. Reps. Russell M. Nixon, Republican, and Helen Gahagan Douglas, Democrat, have announced for the Senate in California. Sen. Francis J. Myers, Democrat, will seek re-election in Pennsylvania and newly elected Herbert H. Lehman may go after a full term in New York. The former Democratic governor won Dulles' Senate post for just one year. No other candidates are avowed.

Ohio, also high on the nation's population roll, will offer the biggest senatorial match and the one likelihood of all to produce a presidential prospect. Here Sen. Robert A. Taft, twice a GOP candidate for the White House, will be fighting for re-election against a determined labor opposition that has not yet found its candidate.

Should Taft win his third successive Senate term, he would undoubtedly be high on the GOP card of presidential possibilities for 1952.

So it appears certain that many bright presidential hopes may be nourished or crushed by the impending 1950 struggles in our three biggest states—plus crucial Ohio.

Boyle's Column

Never Do A Woman A Favor

By Hal Boyle

New York — P.—The main thing wrong with American womanhood is women.

A man who tries to do these forlorn daughters of Eve a favor is just a moon calf. It always backfires on him.

Particularly is a mere man foolish to try to give them an advice in the magic realm of love. Herewith is a postmortem on a little attempt I made:

Knowing that I am a woman's whole existence, I checked to see if I could find them a short-cut in this field to save wear and tear on their claws.

My inquiry disclosed that — Dr. Kinsey to the contrary — the greatest lovers are men in their 40s. This truth was confirmed by Dorothy Dix and the fact that the eight top-drawing male film stars are all 40 plus.

You would think that its discovery would be hailed by the ladies as a great timesaver for them.

But what happened?

My research reaped only a crop of feminine catcalls of derision. I space for only two.

Jeered a widow in Hutchinson, Kan.

"Romantic old devils nothing — they're concited old puppies."

"The 40 to 50-year-old Addy with the cash might have a chance. But he'd be lucky if he found one young girl in a hard row of stumps to make the sacrifice and put up with his indignation, bad breath — please, lady! — false teeth, bald head and a dozen other ailments."

And the dear old widow concluded joyously:

"Daddy, oh Daddy. I know what I is talking about. I took a couple of old pot bellies to a good cleaning myself when I was a bewitching young lady. Print this and give the old pot bellies something to think about."

An equal hoot came from a 34-year-old wife in Ashland, Ky., who said her husband was 33 "and I wouldn't wish him to be one day older."

"Just where you old men get the idea you are attractive is a mystery to me."

"Let me tell you why the popular men film stars are over 40. These men are made up to look young. They are excellent actors and they don't have bald heads and potbellies. And, last but not least, the girls don't have to touch their loose, flabby cheeks."

"Editor's note: she has you there, Boyle."

And the Ashland wife wound up thus:

"Don't ever think any young girl marries an old man for his sex appeal. It is always for his dollars or acres appeal. The sooner men find this out, the happier they will be."

All I can say to these ladies — go bark at Vice President Barkley. He is in Shanghai-La today — you or the widow from Missouri?

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Don't Use A Drug Until You're Sure It Is Well Tested

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

Fat people naturally hope for some drug or other simple and quick way of melting off the pounds and restoring a slender figure. A few years ago it seemed as though the answer to this desire had finally been discovered. A chemical compound called dinitrophenol, which was known in industry chiefly for its use in the manufacture of explosives, seemed to be the wonder drug.

It almost literally melted off the fat. There was much enthusiasm for this drug in many places. For a short time dinitrophenol was used a good deal—and successfully—to reduce weight. However, soon after dinitrophenol began to be used, it was discovered that the drug had serious dangers. Some people who took it developed skin rashes. Liver damage was reported.

Several deaths were reported following the administration of dinitrophenol and in two of these the dosage had not been unusually large at all. In several of the six persons who died death came rapidly—a day after the symptoms first began to show. Among some who took the drug and seemed to have good results without immediate signs of poisoning, cataracts formed in the eyes. This turned out to be another serious complication of dinitrophenol.

The story of dinitrophenol is important because it shows that until a new treatment has been studied carefully no one knows whether the dangers in using it are not greater than the possible good. All new drugs, therefore, need to be handled with care and too much should not be expected of them until the important actions, bad as well as good, have been worked out by study in the laboratory, on experimental animals and finally by careful observation of their effects on human beings.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each may be able to answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

QUESTION: Is there anything a person can do to prevent dreaming nightly.

ANSWER: I do not know of any method. If anyone knows of one, it would be appreciated by a lot of people.

Peron Officials Search Records Of News Agencies

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Nov. 25.—P.—Investigators for the Peron government today searched the books of seven Argentine newspapers and two American news agencies to see if they were paid to fight Juan D. Peron's presidential candidacy in 1946.

A Peronista congressional committee yesterday took over the administrative offices of the Associated Press and the United Press, and of three pro-government newspapers, El Mundo, Critica and La Razon. Earlier the committee had seized the business offices of four independent newspapers, La Prensa, La Nacion, the Tablolo Clarin and the Communist La Hora.

In each office an auditor and two policemen were stationed. The auditors started examining financial records to check on charges that papers and agencies had obtained money from the Leftist-Liberal coalition that unsuccessfully opposed Peron in 1946.

The news agencies and newspapers continued to make normal collections and payments, and carried out new gathering and distributing operations as usual.

Textbooks Talk Back To Students

Van Nuys, Calif., —P.—They have the cutest textbooks at the adult education class in Van Nuys Evening High School. Textbooks with pigtailed, ribbons and flashing eyes. They chirp gleefully to their readers. Children are the texts and their mothers are the students.

The class, called pre-school observation, studies the youngsters and seeks answers to common problems of child rearing. It's full and has a waiting list. The mothers, 44 of them with more than 50 children, meet weekly to observe their offspring at play, take notes, ask questions and discuss day-to-day growth problems.

The children ages two to five have swings, slides, a merry-go-round and books. Periods are set aside for painting, stories, singing, dancing, rest, crackers and tomato juice.

Engineer And Doctor Perfect A Chromium Larynx

Melbourne, Australia — (AP) — An engineer and his doctor have worked together to perfect a chromium larynx which gives speech to mute people.

Ten years ago, Harry Shannon, the engineer, had his larynx removed and was told he would never speak again. But he made a thorough study of the larynx and used his engineering skill to make an artificial articulator. His first important clue was the discovery that the vocal chords produce a constant tone, which is modulated by use of the lips and teeth. When in use, his chromium gadget which resembles an inhaler, is held in one hand, one end of the tube being connected to an aperture in the throat and the other slipped between the teeth.

Now Harry Shannon talks like any normal person. By changing from one articulator to another, he produces the voice of a baritone or a soprano, while he even has what he calls a "roarer" for cheering at football matches and a "whisperer" for more confidential moments. The artificial larynx has brought speech back to many other mute Australians.

CHANDLERVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clegg of Evanston were week-end guests of Mr. Clegg's mother, Mrs. Kathryn Clegg. Dr. J. L. Kirchner of Havana visited here with his brother, Fred Kirchner and family.

Neil Taylor of Springfield is visiting here with his son, Arthur Taylor and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Miltstead and daughter of Oakford visited here Monday.

U.S. Farmer Will Carry The Major Food Load

Lubbock, Tex. — (AP) — The American farmer will carry the major food load for the rest of the world says Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department of Texas technological College.

The American will do this by better methods of farming. These are hybrid seeds, fertilizers, and terracing. Dr. Young foresees a possible crop production increase totalling better than 50 per cent. He says that atomic science studies will someday result in control of the mutations which give better crops. This atomic improvement will be added to the other three.

Dr. Young says that American farmers still have a lot of land compared with some other nations. There is six-and-a-half farm acres available for each American, compared to one for each Englishman and two-tenths for each Japanese.

When approaching landing fields the general rule is that the airplane pilot make left turns unless otherwise directed.

Death Of Greene Co. Man Termed Suicide

White Hall—Paul Price, 41, of Walkerville was found dead Thursday morning in a car parked near the Greene county jail in Carrollton, a 410 gauge shotgun in his hand.

A coroner's jury at an inquest conducted Friday morning by Coroner William H. Wolfe, determined that Price had come to his death by a self-inflicted gun wound in his left temple.

Testifying at the inquest were George Armstrong and John Siemer of Carrollton, who discovered the body, and Deputy Sheriff Guy Cunningham, who established the time of the suicide.

Cunningham related that the car was not parked by the jail when he went there at midnight. However, when he left at 2:30 a. m., he said he noticed the car and Price inside, but did not attempt to rouse him, thinking he was asleep.

Had Threatened Suicide
Members of Price's family testified that Price had threatened suicide on previous occasions. They verified the writing and signature of a suicide note left by Price, who cited family difficulties as the reason for his action. The note was addressed to Greene County Sheriff Arthur Powell.

Members of the jury were A. J. Harding, foreman, Mrs. Norman Jones, Dorothy M. Young, Dean Rowe, Frank Dawdy and Bill Elliott.

Served in War
Price is survived by his wife, the former Velma Gleason; his mother, Mrs. Eva Price of Carrollton; seven brothers, Curtis of White Hall, William of Alton, Eugene of Patterson, Wilbur, with the armed forces in Maryland, Arch of Wood River, Harvey of Alton and Claude of Patterson; and one sister, Mrs. Curtis Gilder of White Hall.

The decedent was a veteran of World War II and a member of American Legion Post No. 70 at White Hall.

The body is at the Dawdy Funeral Home in White Hall, where services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m., with Rev. Albert Monroe officiating. Burial will be in the White Hall cemetery.

Driver Uninjured As Car Overturns Near Winchester

Warren Jones, 635 North East street, escaped uninjured when the car which he was driving overturned early Thursday morning one mile north of Winchester.

Jones' car, a 1948 Oldsmobile, was damaged extensively and was towed to Lukeman's Garage.

Carrollton Couple Exchange Vows In Church Rites

Carrollton—Miss Madelyn Gaither and Phil H. Pohlman, both of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday at five p. m. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Michael Enright in St. John's rectory.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Juanita Taylor of Hardin, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Pohlman of this city, sister of the bridegroom. The best man was Al Pohlman of Chicago, and the groomsmen were James Pohlman of Macomb, both brothers of the groom.

The bride chose for her wedding a ballerina length dress of blue net over satin, with which were white accessories. Her shower bouquet was of white roses. Mrs. Taylor was gowning in a taupe street-length dress and her accessories were black. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

Miss Pohlman wore a street-length dress of turquoise blue, with black accessories. Her bouquet was also of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a buffet supper was served the bridal party at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Pohlman. Later in the evening the members of both families were entertained at the Pohlman home. Mr. and Mrs. Pohlman entertained their friends at a wedding dance Wednesday evening in the Knights of Columbus hall, after which they left on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Carmody.

Property at Berdan Destroyed By Fire

White Hall—Fire at the Royal Hills residence in Berdan Thursday night completely destroyed the Hills home, all of its contents and a machine shed adjoining the house.

Fire trucks from Carrollton and White Hall battled the blaze, but the fire had made such headway that attempts to bring it under control were futile.

Greatest Compliment a Car Ever Had!

NUMBERED AMONG THE HAPPIEST Cadillac owners are many, many dealers who sell and service other well-known makes of cars.

They feel perfectly free to avail themselves of Cadillacs because they know that all the world holds Cadillac in a class apart. Hence, it is no reflection on the cars they sell when they seek, for themselves and their families, the exclusive advantages which "the Standard of the World" provides.

This, of course, is the greatest compliment a motor car ever had—and the respect upon which it is founded has been fifty years in the building. Throughout all this time, there has been the strictest adherence to the highest ideals of engineering and production. Not once has the inflexible rule of quality been eased for a single day.

It is a wonderful thing to own such a car. It is a wonderful thing to drive it—to relax in it—and to have it as a cherished possession. All in all, it enhances the enjoyment of the whole day's activities.

We think you would sense all this—and more—after an hour or so at the wheel. Why not come in some day, quite soon—for a ride that's a revelation? We should be happy to have you any time.

What It Means: Battle Of The Budget

Washington—The big annual family battle for federal funds is now at its peak. Lights in Budget Bureau offices burned until 4:30 a.m. one night recently. Many a Budget Bureau official will work late Christmas Eve and some even on Christmas Day in the last minute rush to have the president's budget ready by the opening of the next session of congress.

The Budget Bureau is the first and often the toughest hurdle that government agencies have to clear before they can get money for running expenses next year—the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951. Each agency of the executive branch of the government competes for its share of the taxpayers' dollars. The president makes the final decision on what requests shall be sent to Congress.

An agency's plea for money before the appropriations committee of congress is frequently an anticlimax. By that time it is committed to whatever the president and the Budget Bureau have allowed. Most agencies make NO open effort to get any more from congress.

Congress, of course, has the final say on how much each agency shall be given. But it never hears the arguments until the agencies' representatives have a thorough working over. It's a painful one, too. In 1948 the Budget Bureau hatcut men cut $11,400,000,000 from the amount the agencies requested. In 1949 they cut $9,100,000,000. In the present fiscal year—1950—they cut $4,300,000,000.

The spadework is done by about 125 Budget Bureau examiners. They are divided into groups, each with its own specialty. Throughout the year they follow the activities of the agencies in which they specialize, watch their management practices and check up generally on how they spend their money.

They are engineers, accountants, former state and city officials, former college professors. Many of them are former employees of the agencies with which they deal. They earn up to $10,330 a year. The general public never hears their names, but many a prominent bureaucrat lives in secret dread of what the examiners will do to him each autumn.

The examiners send their recommendations to the director of the bureau, Frank Pace, Jr., and he or his deputies and assistants hold a long series of review hearings. Pace is keeping in constant touch with President Truman these days, sees him three or four times a week. The budget involves policy matters of the utmost importance to the president.

After the Budget Bureau has finished its work and the president has approved it, the bureau sends to each agency head a memorandum telling him how large an appropriation will be requested for his organization. These are called "allowance letters." Many of them already have been sent out. If the agency head hits the ceiling when he finds out what his allowance is, he can appeal either to the Budget director or the president for more money.

The Budget Bureau constantly is pressured by the lobbies and organ-

The new 1950 Mercury retains its distinguished front end appearance but emphasizes more its horizontal lines by incorporating larger oblong chrome parking lamps into the grille. A new nameplate has been brought down into the grille area and placed on a chrome strip, replacing the separate letter treatment. A new ornamental deck lid handle embodying the Mercury insignia, and distinctive new bumper guards are other exterior styling features on the new models.

ized groups, just as congress is. And some of the government agencies themselves do some high-powered lobbying and pressuring when the matter gets before congress. But they seldom care to take issue openly with the president's budget decisions. Once he has submitted his budget to congress, his official family is all supposed to stand solidly behind him.

Molasses deserves a place in dishes prepared for a family because it is an excellent source of iron and offers important calcium. Use it in cookies, in gingerbread, when baking apples and pears, and in flavored milk drinks.

Your mind can keep you well

Fifty per cent of all the people going to doctors in the United States today are victims of one common disease—they literally think themselves into sickness as real and painful as any.

So says Dr. John A. Schindler in December Reader's Digest.

Don't miss this startling article. Read why your attitude toward life actually brings on physical illnesses... and how thinking "right" lifts the emotional tension in you that causes them.

All Grains Hit New High Levels

Chicago, Nov. 25. —(P)—Grains rolled upward under the impetus of a strong cash market on the Board of Trade today. Many new seasonal highs were hung up in wheat, corn and oats.

Mills bought wheat, leading to the belief domestic flour business was expanding. December wheat gained more than 2 cents at times while the March contract went to a new peak since trading in the delivery started.

Good-bye to the common cold?

If you begin to take them at the first sign of a cold, certain new anti-histamine tablets will likely kill your cold within 36 hours. They will also prevent the sneezing, coughing, and runny noses that spread infection to others. And they are not limited to expensive prescriptions; the government permits their direct sale to the public in drug stores.

In December Reader's Digest, Paul de Kruif tells how this new drug was developed... how it has been tested both as a cure AND as a preventive.

M'Murray Players Give Performances Thursday, Friday

The MacMurray college theatre's presentation of "Papa Is All" played to a responsive and appreciative audience on Thanksgiving night. Patterson Greene's comedy about a Menominee family's troubles with a domineering father and their temporary relief when they think that Papa is "all dead" is the College Theatre's first major production of the year. It was repeated Friday night.

The production, directed by Howard C. Hansen, features the American debut performance of Austrian actress Monica Faber who is studying drama and speech at MacMurray. Miss Faber impressed the audience with the faculty and flexibility of her portrayal of "Mama" who, although dominated by her husband, had her children's happiness first in her heart. Of particular charm was Miss Faber's handling of the unusual Pennsylvania Dutch dialect. Her performance enhanced the audience's feeling of authenticity in the play.

Veteran actor Harry La Tier, playing opposite Miss Faber, was a fearful and menacing Papa. Miss Esther Wilding as daughter Emma, and Al Hudson as son Jake, were also very convincing as the two children who are thwarted by Papa at every turn.

Miss Connie Stokes as the neighbor, Mrs. Yoder, lent much comedy to many of the desperate situations and Joe Baker, as an officer of the state police, was finally able to relieve the family of its burdensome member.

The action of the play is laid in the Dutch farm kitchen of the Aukamps. The set was attractive in its neatness, simplicity, and authenticity.

New York Stock Market

New York, Nov. 25.—(P)—A full-fledged decline took shape in the stock market today.

Decline ranged to an extreme of around 2 points although most of them were fractional. Several groups put up a show of resistance, for a while, among them rubber and liquor stocks.

A substantial amount of business was done. Turnover reached a rate of 1,300,000 shares for the full session.

Corporate bonds moved narrowly. Add sliced dates to vanilla or chocolate pudding for a nutritious dessert.

Santa's Arrival Friday Heralded By Hundreds Of Excited Youngsters

Friday was Santa Claus day in Jacksonville and hundreds of excited youngsters were on hand to greet the genial old gentleman as he arrived here to take up his abode in his gingerbread-like house in Central Park.

The public square was swarming with anxious kiddies, eager to spill their Christmas wishes to their kindly benefactor, old St. Nick.

As he promised, in his letter to Chamber of Commerce officials, Santa arrived in a novel fashion. His presence was first noted when the big new fire truck came zooming around the square.

All attention was drawn to the roof of the Savings and Loan Building, where Santa stood waving to the crowd. The aerial ladder was hoisted to the top of the building and Santa descended into the midst of his enthusiastic public.

Santa rode around the square in the fire truck, acknowledging his hearty reception with waves and smiles.

Treats For Kiddies

Seated on the throne in his house, he began receiving his youthful admirers right away. Lending an ear to their requests, he reminded them of the importance of being good boys and girls. Treats were given all of the kiddies.

Santa will be in his house every day from now until Christmas. All youngsters are urged to visit Santa's house and put in their Christmas orders soon.

Beardstown Man, Struck By Car, Dies At Hospital

Beardstown — Injuries suffered when he was struck by a car, Nov. 16, proved fatal to Herman Nierstradt, 80, retired Cass county farmer and a resident of this city. He died at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday in Schmidt Memorial hospital here.

Mr. Nierstradt suffered a broken leg and other injuries when hit by a car driven by Robert Alhorn of Meredosia.

He was born at Arenzville, a son of the late Henry and Charlotte Nierstradt, and farmed in the vicinity of Arenzville until 24 years ago when he retired and came here to live with his niece, Mrs. Nina Brown. He was the last of the family and was never married. Survivors are eight nephews and nieces.

The body was taken to the Cline funeral home, where services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, with Rev. Kenneth Knudsen, pastor of the First Lutheran church here, officiating. Burial will be at the St. Peter's Lutheran cemetery, near Arenzville.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(P)—Livestock classes finished out their holiday-shortened week on a steady to higher note today. Eggs were up 25 to 50 cents a hundred pounds, cattle were mostly steady, and sheep steady to strong.

Barrows and gilts in the butcher weights merited $15.50 up to the practical top of $16.50, one small lot taking $16.65. Sows made $14.00 to $14.75 mostly but heaves went on down as low as $13.00. Clearance was completed early.

In cattle the big money went to rejects from the International Livestock exposition, several loads and lots selling at $38.00 to $43.50 on choice and yearlings grading choice and prime. Generally, however, the offerings consisted of medium to good steers at $22.00 to $29.00 and heifers at $21.50 to $26.50. Good sausage bulls reached $19.00 and choice vealers $25.00.

Some 2,500 lambs brought the market top of $24.25, while shorn types topped a $24.00, yearlings at $21.00, and ewes at $11.00.

Receipts on sale included an estimated 15,000 hogs, 2,500 cattle, 300 calves and 7,000 sheep, the latter figure taking in around 2,000 lambs heading for the snow pens.

U. S. POPULATION 149,917,000

Washington, Nov. 25.—(P)—The United States population was 149,917,000 on October 1, the census bureau reported today. It is estimated to have passed 150,000,000 since then.

That figure, which includes 487,000 in the armed forces overseas, represented a 244,000 gain during September and a rise of nearly 1,000,000 for the first nine months of this year.

Army-Navy Tilt Holds Spotlight As College Grid Season Closes

New York, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The annual Army-Navy football game tomorrow will be the last of the season, while the outcome of several other major games will be watched with interest as they produce possible fodder for New Year's Bowl events.

President Truman will head a throng of 102,000 sitting in the Golden anniversary game between the cadets of Army and midshipmen of Navy at Philadelphia's huge Municipal Stadium. Army, held to a surprising 21-21 draw last year, is favored to uphold its No. 4 national ranking and undefeated record.

Chandlerville Five Beats Petersburg In 45-36 Encounter

Chandlerville — Roy Sariff's Chandlerville Comets fell before an invading Petersburg basketball aggregation 45-36 in a Turkey Day aftermath here last night.

The host Comets outgunned Petersburg from the field, bucketing 16 field goals to the visitors' 14. The victory was credited to free throws — Petersburg rang the bell for 17 while Chandlerville was getting but four.

Reitzel and Taylor led the Comet basketballers with 15 and 14 points each. Clary was high for the winners with 15 counters.

The Petersburg second ran roughshod over the Chandlerville subs 38-15 in the preliminary.

Big 10 Basketball Officials To Meet

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Big Ten basketball officials will meet in a rules interpretation meeting tomorrow and Sunday.

Along with 25 whistle-blowers, the league cage coaches will assemble Sunday. Conference Commissioner K. L. (Clyde) Wilson will be in charge of the clinic at which motion pictures of officiating technique will be shown.

A new touch this season will be standardized official uniforms including grey flannel trousers, white black-and-white striped shirt, white shoes and a warm-up jacket of white, trimmed in blue and adorned with a Big Ten emblem.

PRANKSTER CAUSES YOUNG MOTORMAN TO LOSE EYE

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The prankster who threw a snowball through a street car window last night should be painfully remorseful.

Rice-Baylor and Oklahoma-Oklahoma A. & M. heading the list.

Then there is the Southern California-Notre Dame scrap at South Bend, Ind., one of the sturdiest grid rivalries in the nation, which began in 1926. Notre Dame, the nation's No. 1 team, will be remembering last year's 14-14 tie with the Trojans.

Rice and Baylor, playing at Houston, will have the southwestern conference title and the job of playing host in the Cotton Bowl at stake in their game. The team winning is expected to make known its preference for an opponent in the Cotton Bowl tomorrow night.

Oklahoma, ranked the No. 3 team this week, should make Oklahoma A. & M. its 10th victim of the season in their clash at Norman. Oklahoma is a sure-fire Bowl team, probably the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans. There is also a possibility the Sooners might get to the Cotton Bowl.

Sugar Bowl Hopes

The Tulane-L.S.U. affair at New Orleans is expected to help clear up the Sugar Bowl situation. Tulane, southeastern conference champion, probably will get a bid if it can hurdle L.S.U., a tough team in recent weeks. With Santa Clara already picked for Miami's Orange Bowl, the other half of the lineup might possibly emerge from tonight's game between Kentucky and Miami.

Two more southern teams with Bowl hopes, Virginia and North Carolina, meet tomorrow at Chapel Hill, N.C. Virginia has been beaten only by Tulane, while N.C. has lost three.

Other games on the program include Alabama-Florida, Auburn-Clemson, Boston College-Holy Cross, Brigham Young-Pepperdine, Colorado A. & M.-Colorado, Fordham-New York University, Georgia-Georgia Tech, Kansas-Arizona, Mississippi-Mississippi State, North Carolina State-William & Mary, Southern Methodist-Texas Christian, Tennessee-Vanderbilt, Tulsa-Arkansas, and Wake Forest-South Carolina.

Olin Industries To Open Factory Making Cellophane

Alton, Ill., Nov. 25.—(AP)—John M. Olin, president of Olin Industries, Inc., announced today his company is going into the cellophane making business at the Ecusta Paper Corp. plant at Pisgah Forest, N.C.

Ecusta will continue to manufacture cigarette paper at the plant, Chairman Harry Straus of the Ecusta board announced at Brevard, N.C.

Straus said the new addition to Ecusta will require enlargement of manufacturing facilities at the plant and will provide employment of manufacturing facilities at the plant and will provide employment for a great number of additional workers.

Ecusta now employs about 1,500 persons in the manufacture of cigarette paper.

In a written press release this morning, Olin said his company had bought the Ecusta concern.

Later, however, he said through a spokesman that the transaction represented "acquisition of existing facilities of Ecusta, necessary for us to get into the cellophane industry."

Woman's Stomach Turns Out To Be Scrap Metal Yard

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Nov. 25.—(AP)—A patient at Bryce Mental hospital complained of a stomach ache. The doctors took an X-ray and decided to operate.

Still dazed, Dr. William A. Engelbert today listed the items he removed from the patient's stomach as:

Forty-two cot springs, each two and one-half inches long.

One spoon handle.

Two overall snaps.

One soft drink bottle cap.

Thirty-one pieces of wire, some of them eight inches long and sharp at both ends.

Forty-one rocks.

One nut.

Discrimination In School's Frats By-Passed At Meet

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—A proposal to end racial discrimination in college fraternities was ruled off the program of the National Interfraternity conference today as being "solely the business of each fraternity."

Frank H. Myers, chairman, announced the decision. It was made by the executive committee of the organization of 57 national Greek-letter societies, holding its annual conference here.

But an effort to revive the issue at tomorrow's closing session was launched by undergraduates representing interfraternity councils in a score of northeastern colleges and midwestern "Big Ten" schools. Lack of any vote in the graduate meeting, they hoped to work through official delegates who might be in sympathy with their view.

Washington, a federal district judge in the case, rejected the delegates' proposal for the fraternities "unanimous" to improve poor scholarship, end "Hell Week" initiation abuses, and control drinking in chapter houses.

"LITTLE ALL-STATE" GRIDERS

Red-Hot Arenzville Quintet Scuttles Franklin 46-35

Franklin—A hot-shooting Arenzville five outgunned Franklin's Flashes 46-35 here last night.

The two clubs battled on even terms through the first quarter and well into the second, before Arenzville's Don Vessler and Fricke warmed to their tasks and threw the Raiders out front 24-16 at the intermission, with some lippy long shots.

Arenzville set a steady pace through the last half, maintaining a comfortable lead over the entertaining Treat-coached aggregation.

Don Vessler bucketed 16 points to lead Arenzville. Bill Rawlings hooped 12 tallies for Franklin.

The Arenzville seconds downed Franklin's reserves 30-23 in the curtain-raiser.

The International Livestock Show Opens In Chicago

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The choicest raw materials of America's bountiful market basket will go on display here tomorrow.

The combined international livestock exposition and hay and grain show—biggest exhibit of its kind in the world—will show 11,500 head of cattle and 3,000 samples of grain and hay.

Sponsors expect 100,000 visitors for the eight day show.

The exhibits represent the best in American agriculture. With choice cattle prize near record highs, the prize winning animals are certain to reap their owners a golden harvest.

The sale of these animals is one of the highlights of the show.

Boys and girls from the farms—the farmers and farm wives of the tomorrow—will vie with their elders for the distinction of showing the grand champion steer.

"Old Gold," a 1,200 pound Aberdeen Angus shown by C. E. Yoder & sons, Muscatine, Iowa, took that honor last year. He sold at a record price of $10.75 a pound.

The Yoders are back again this year with 10 Angus steers and one hereford.

In the last installment we left our bowler with a spare in frame 2. After marking up this spare, his first ball in the net frame takes 6 pins (1), roll in his third frame, with four pins still standing. And he gets them.

Now he can total the score for frame 2. Ten points for the spare, plus 6 (3). All the pins have been knocked down by the two rolls, so he has an-

Top-Rated Irish Will Take On Old Rival, Southern Cal, Today

By Charles Chamberlain

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 25.—(P)—Snow forced Notre Dame's griders inside for most drills this week, and the usual razor sharpness honed in to the team by Taskmaster Frank Leahy prior to a big game may be missing when the unbeaten Irish tangle with Southern California tomorrow.

Seemingly invincible, the mighty Irish will strive for their ninth successive win of the season and their 37th game without defeat against a bitter old rival.

It will be the 21st meeting between Notre Dame and Southern California and a capacity throng of 57,000 fans is expected despite a heavy wet snowfall during the week and the threat of more.

The gridiron has been covered with canvas, but slippery footing is expected which might lead to an upset. The practice field has been bulldozed of snow, but a new storm yesterday drove the Irish into the fieldhouse to complete preparations against a team which last season came closer to defeating them than any since Leahy's gang began piling up its record with a 25-6 win over Illinois in the 1946 opener.

At Los Angeles a year ago, the Trojans led 14-7 with 21 minutes to play only to have Notre Dame's spot player, speedy Bill Gray, run back a kick 26 yards to set up a final 14-14 tie. That deadlock, plus the scoreless battle in 1946 with Army, are the closest shaves. Notre Dame has had in sweeping through 36 games without defeat. In the march they have averaged five touchdowns per game and held opponents to an average of one.

Despite a poor practice week, the incentive and spirit to win—which are so typical of Irish teams—were pumped into the squad at a huge Friday night rally. Honored guests were the Four Horsemen and teammates of the late Knute Rockne's great unbeaten 1924 outfit. Members of that famed team are enjoying their 24th reunion celebration, climaxed by watching the encounter with U. S. C.

States It Will Be Hard To Replace Lilienthal In AEC

Washington, Nov. 25.—(P)—Chairman McMahon (D-Dom) of the Senate-House atomic energy committee said today it will be difficult to find the right man to succeed David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the atomic energy commission.

McMahon was recalled from a California vacation for a conference with President Truman, apparently to discuss Lilienthal's successor. He said he had no recommendation to day before the President. "I don't know who would be the best man for the job," he told reporters.

When the appointment is made, it will be referred by the Senate to McMahon's group.

McMahon said the best administrator would be a man with business experience as well as a background of government administration.

Other team results were Ohio State, 179 points; Northwestern, 178; Dartmouth, 174; Dennison, 173; Michigan, 160; Illinois Tech, 158; Notre Dame, 153; Bowling Green, 150; Purdue, 132; Cincinnati, 123; Michigan State and Wisconsin, 119 each; Minnesota 84; and Indiana, none.

Magnovox Co. Announces Terms Of New Financing

Fort Wayne, Nov. 25.—(P)—The Magnovox company, manufacturers of television and radio sets, today made public the terms of its proposed new financing. A stockholders' meeting has been called for Dec. 12 to vote on the proposals.

The company said it proposed to issue 100,000 shares of Class A stock as well as debentures aggregating $2,000,000. The stock would be sold through a public offering while the debentures would be sold privately to institutional investors.

Sales of both stock and debentures would be made at about the same time the company said, but "it is probable that the sale of the debentures" will be contingent upon the sale of the Class A stock.

Proceeds from both sales was estimated at $3,300,000, which the firm said would be used to retire bank loans presently totaling $2,800,000, to restore bank balances and to augment the company's working capital.

Two Killed In Mine Accident

DuQuoin, Ill., Nov. 25.—(P)—Thomas Harris, 41, of DuQuoin and Emanuel Slover, 33, of Dowell were killed today in an accident at the Traux-Treiser Coal Co. Burning Star slope mine near Elkhart.

Details were not immediately available but officials said the men apparently were caught in a fall of top coal. The victims were shot-fighters.

Rice, Baylor Fight For Championship Host In Bowl Tilt

Houston, Tex., Nov. 25.—(P)—A conference championship and the host spot in the Cotton Bowl will be the prizes tomorrow as Rice and Baylor tangle in the southwest conference's first winner-take-all game since 1935.

A victory or tie would give Rice the championship and the Cotton Bowl's $120,000. Baylor must win to get into the Dallas Bowl classic and throw the two teams into a tie for the title.

Indications are that the opponent of the host team in the Cotton Bowl will be Oklahoma, Virginia, North Carolina or Kentucky. Reports also are that the loser, or Baylor in event of a tie game, will be invited to another major bowl—probably the Orange Bowl.

Oklahoma Has Sugar Bowl Bid At Stake Today

Norman, Okla., Nov. 25.—(P)—With a repeat Sugar Bowl bid virtually assured if they win, the Oklahoma Sooners were ready today for their 44th contest with the Oklahoma Aggies here tomorrow.

A crowd of 50,000 persons is expected to see the game in the enlarged Owen field.

Sooner Coach Bud Wilkinson said that if his team wins, it would vote immediately after the game on whether to accept a Bowl bid—and if so, which one.

Oklahoma is being wooed by both Sugar Bowl and Cotton Bowl officials. Players have said they favor a return to the Sugar Bowl.

Last New Year's Day, Oklahoma defeated North Carolina in the post-season classic at New Orleans.

Oklahoma is a four touchdown favorite but both Coach Wilkinson and Aggie mentor Jim Lookabaugh predict a much closer contest.

Oklahoma has run its victory string to 19 straight games to be named the nation's No. 3 team.

Georgetown Leads Northwestern U. Dinghy Regatta

Chicago, Nov. 25.—(P)—Georgetown piled up 202 points for a commanding lead in the opening session of the three-day Northwestern university fall Dinghy Regatta today.

Sailors from 15 colleges braved below-freezing weather which coated their little eight-foot craft with ice in the competition at Belmont harbor.

Georgetown's A team of Skipper E. Chester Peet, and Frank Flaherty, crew, took four firsts in the 10 races sailed around a mile rectangular course.

Other team results were Ohio State, 179 points; Northwestern, 178; Dartmouth, 174; Dennison, 173; Michigan, 160; Illinois Tech, 158; Notre Dame, 153; Bowling Green, 150; Purdue, 132; Cincinnati, 123; Michigan State and Wisconsin, 119 each; Minnesota 84; and Indiana, none.

Rev. Strittmatter Made Archabbot Of St. Vincent College

Latrobe, Pa., Nov. 25.—(P)—A colorful pageant of the seventh century today enthroned the Rt. Rev. Denis Omer Strittmatter as coadjutor archabbot of St. Vincent Archabbey and college.

Nine bishops, 18 abbots and 20 monsignors joined with more than 400 priests and 100 nuns in paying tribute to the new spiritual leader of America's first Benedictine monastery.

The spare, graying 53-year-old Monk was elected archabbot on September 8 by nearly 200 Benedictine monks in convocation from all parts of the nation.

He did not attain the full powers of his office—comparable to that of a bishop—until his official blessing today by coadjutor Bishop John Dearden of the Pittsburgh Roman Catholic diocese.

He was presented for the blessing by two assistant abbots, Rt. Rev. Lawrence Vohs of St. Bede's Abbey, Peru, Ill., and Rt. Rev. Cuthbert McDonald of St. Benedict's Abbey, Atchison, Kans.

Percey told reporters he was "fastidious" about a 30-foot-long robe during his fast. He said the fast "no publicity stunt" but was designed to prove the human body can be itself without medicine if given the chance.

Percey said he started the fast to overcome increasing drowsiness, handicap in attending his restaurant.

Nationalist China Requests That UN Blockade Commies

Lake Success, Nov. 25.—(P)—Nationalist China asked the United Nations today to blockade Communist China both militarily and economically. It also appealed to U.N. member states to refrain from establishing diplomatic relations with the Communist regime.

Dr. Tingfu F. Tsiang, chief spokesman for Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek at the U.N., urged the world organization to condemn Russia for aiding the Communist government of Mao Tse-Tung based in Peiping.

The Nationalist spokesman has his appeal in a 17,000-word speech before the general assembly's 59-nation political committee after Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky announced his delegation would not take part in the debate.

Prime Minister Stalin's foreign minister walked out of the committee room but left Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik behind to serve as acting head of the Soviet delegation. Vishinsky told the assembly Wednesday that Moscow no longer recognizes the nationalist delegation as the legal spokesman for China at the U.N.

Seymour Linfield, of New York its executive director, opened the four-day convention last night with an appeal to cut armament spending in the "cold war" against Russia.

Army, Navy Elevens Invade Philadelphia On Eve Of Big Game

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—(P)—Two super-charged football squads from West Point and Annapolis rolled into this crowded old city today, looked over the site of tomorrow's game and then settled down in quiet country retreats to await the blast of the referee's whistle.

Army's big, unbeaten galaxy, headed by Coach Earl Blaik and brimming with confidence, planned to spend the night at the Manufacturers Country club on the city's outskirts, while youthful George Sauer escorted his Navy hopefuls to the Pine Valley Golf club in New Jersey.

Cold, cloudy weather awaits the 102,000 fans, including President Truman, who will watch the two service elevens collide for the 50th time at 12:30 (CST) in sprawling Municipal Stadium.

The Navy's 3,400 midshipmen and Army's 2,600 cadets are scheduled to reach the stadium on special trains shortly before game time. Every seat for the classic has long since been sold, and millions of fans throughout the world will watch the tussle on television or listen in by radio and short wave.

Army, boasting a string of 19 games without defeat and marred only by two ties, goes into the game a heavy favorite, as usual. Cadets are a little of every including burning speed, and fully rate the choice.

Navy has not had a successful season. The middies have won three while losing four and tying one. Against mutual foes—P and Columbia—Army looked the more powerful and versatile.

Still, it is an honored axiom nobody knows what is going to happen when Army and Navy collide.

Tulane Lays Grid Reputation On Block Before LSU

New Orleans, Nov. 25.—(P)—Tulane's football reputation and almost clinched Bowl bid on chopping block tomorrow. And sports writers think Louisiana State University has a sharp ax.

The Green Wave is southeastern conference champion and a defunct by the twice-beaten L.S.U. This would tumble their national prestige back to that ebb which followed their 46-7 slaughter by Notre Dame.

On the other hand, an L.S.U. victory would make the State school unofficial champion of the conferences, the Southeastern, Southwest and Southern. This virtue of triumphs over Rice Institute and North Carolina.

The CAMEO
By Virginia Teale

Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Two murders over a valuable cameo have baffled Chief Peters and his assistant, Charlie Reddy. Martin Falter, a blackmailer posing as an artist, and Nell O'Neill, who claimed to own the cameo, are the victims. Police question Tom O'Neill on the death of his wife and Tom tells police to take the cameo back to Stephanie Smith, who has just been released as Nell's niece. Reddy goes to the home of Hagar Blair, who was missing when Nell's murder occurred, and finds her now at home with Stephanie.

XXII

HAGAR, clad in her usual sweater and slacks, was propped against pillows on the chaise longue, a furry-looking cover across her feet, an icebag on top of her head secured by a red ribbon.

"Not often I get bashed on the head with a pottery jug," Hagar slapped the couch indignantly. "Right in my own shop. Hardly got my britches in the door when I was felled like an ox."

"What time was this, Miss Blair?" Charlie Reddy asked.

"Oh, call me 'Hagar.' I've just come to realize that life can be very short. What time? About 7 o'clock. I think I just got back from Dana Point. I was out cold afterward for a couple of hours."

"She phoned me around 10," Stephanie put in. "Right after everybody left here. I went right down in a cab and brought her home."

"This thing's turning into a nightmare, Reddy," she told him between puffs. "Murder right in my own backyard. Literally. Who did it, d'you think?"

Reddy stared down at his chromium lighter. "I may as well tell you the truth, Miss Blair: There are some who think you might have."

She snatched the icebag from her head. "Think I might have? Are you crazy? I can prove I didn't. I can prove I wasn't anywhere around!"

"Can you?" Reddy's face looked hopeful. "How?"

HAGAR was examining the numbers, once more considering their possible purpose, when Stephanie returned to the room.

"He's gone," she announced. "Don't worry, Hagar, everything will turn out all right, he'll look out for us. Wasn't he wonderful to bring me the cameo?" She came to lean over Hagar's shoulder.

"What are you looking at?" "These numbers. See, engraved in the bottom of the box: Ten, dash, four, Eight, dash, two. And, underneath, six."

Stephanie peered at them: "Are they dates, d'you think?"

"Might think so, except for this six down here all by itself. Or, it could be some kind of jeweler's code. Probably nothing important, anyhow." She placed the cameo flat on one palm and stared at it: "Pretty bloody process, getting hold of this thing—maybe it's jinxed, like the Hope diamond."

"Let me have it, Hagar. I'll try again to open it."

"Be nice if you could. Can't you remember how your mother used to open it?"

Stephanie fingered the cameo's surface: "She pressed something. There's a little spring somewhere in the frame."

"A secret spring!" Hagar cried. "This gets corner all the time!"

"I seem to remember," Stephanie mused as she pressed the frame experimentally, "that one time of the murder. You can't even prove you received that phone call."

"Why, I can, too!" Hagar's face reddened indignantly, "Nell was right there when I—" her voice faltered and stopped.

REDDY looked glumly down at his shoes, then sighed and got up from his chair: "Just a few more quick questions, Miss Blair: Did Nell ask you to come over and discuss the cameo?"

"Yes, she did. Phoned me about it."

"Do you remember where the O'Neill phone is situated?"

"Of course I do, out in their front hall."

"And do you remember whether you took your purse with you when you went out to answer the phone?"

Hagar screwed up her face, concentrating: "Let's see... No! No, I didn't. That's it! While I was out of the room, Nell stole my studio key from my bag! That's how she got into the studio!"

"Maybe you're right," Reddy dug into his coat pocket and brought out the silver box: "Here's a little trinket that may brighten things up a little. Tom O'Neill ordered that it be turned over to Stephanie."

Stephanie stared at him, in disbelief while she stretched out both hands for the box.

He grinned at her. "We may borrow it later on for use as evidence, but, for now, it's yours."

He turned to leave. Stephanie handed the box to Hagar and walked with him from the room.

Alone, Hagar stared thoughtfully at the box. Almost gingerly, then, she pressed the lock and the lid flipped open. She picked up the cameo and the unlocked pin snagged on the velvet cushion, pulling it up from the bottom of the box. As she tried to straighten the pad, Hagar made mental note to glue it down firmly once and for all. The cushion was now wedged in a slanting position, she worked at it with a hairpin and pried it out. There were those numbers again, engraved clearly in the bottom of the box!

Reddy goes to the home of Hagar Blair, who was missing when Nell's murder occurred, and finds her now at home with Stephanie.

HAGAR leaned back on her pillows. "I wonder why your mother wouldn't consider selling it when she knew it could mean the difference between feed and famine for her little girl."

"My father told her never to let it out of her hands. It was their most important possession, he said, it would insure our future. Mother wouldn't part with it because she kept thinking father might still be alive."

"You don't expect him to appear, do you?"

"Oh, no. I've been sure for a long time that I'm completely alone in the world."

HAGAR grinned at her. "Except for me. And don't forget your friend, Charlie Reddy, he's very much in the picture, if I'm any judge."

"Mr. Reddy—Charlie—is very nice," Stephanie said primly.

"Oh, pot! You'd better open up those eyes and take a better look, if that's the best you can say for him! He's smart, he has a good sense of humor, and he's perishingly handsome. Wish there'd been somebody like him camped on my trail back about 20 years ago. I wouldn't be such a dried up old prune now if there had been."

She wagged a warning finger: "Better look sharp, girl, and grab him before summertime comes along and all those long-legged bronzed blondes start parading the boardwalk!"

Stephanie's honey-brown hair tossed silkily and her blue eyes flashed: "Charlie's intelligent; he doesn't go around admiring legs!"

Hagar glanced significantly at Stephanie's underlinings: "Let me tell you something: If he's like most men, he won't even realize you have an intellect until he learns to take your dimples for granted."

Stephanie tilted her small nose, then her eyes slid obligingly to Hagar and she broke into laughter.

Hagar gave a gratified chuckle. "And let me give you a bit of information: I picked up once under a haystack..." she stopped abruptly and stared at the cameo: "Hey! Look there at the pin!"

The cameo had opened in Stephanie's hands. Both women stared at it.

Hagar spoke first: "What did you do? Do you remember what you were doing to it when it opened?"

Stephanie's hands seemed frozen on the pin, her two thumbs were resting on two of the points of the gold frame at opposite sides of the center.

HAGAR hopped off the couch and leaned tensely over the girl's shoulder: "Don't move your hands, girl, until you get their bearings! Look carefully now: one thumb is one the second point down from the top, left side, and one is on the second point up from the bottom, right side. Just suppose those 12 points on the frame are numerals on a clock dial—you'd be pressing 10 and 4. Remember that—10 and 4."

She scribbled the numbers and handed the paper to Stephanie who accepted it without lifting her eyes from the cameo.

"Now," began Hagar jubilantly. "We can—what's the matter? Oh! Your folks—I forgot to look at their pictures, I was so excited!" She peered down. "Mmm. Uh-huh. Your mother, there, very beautiful. Handsome father, too. Distinguished. Even with that mustache, I can see his resemblance to you. That's probably why Nell never recognized you, you look like your father's side of the family. He looks like some pumpkins, badges and medals all over his jacket. Military man, I suppose."

A clear drop splashed the picture of the woman. Stephanie grabbed up a corner of her skirt and carefully blotted it.

Seniors To Give Ball At M Murray Tonight

MacMurray College students will give a gala four days tonight with their Senior Ball. The ball will feature the presentation of Queen Jane Morrison and music by Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra. The coronation of Miss Morrison, who was chosen queen of the ball by Movie Actor Fred MacMurray, will highlight a beautiful setting of green and gold which will carry out the theme of the ball—“Contrast.”

Behind the band stand a large revolving music note in gold will provide the motif for the orchestra which will play at the south end of McClelland Hall. A back-drop of gold with the notes of the first measure of Dorsey's theme music, “Contrast,” will further emphasize the theme of the dance. The rest of the dance floor will be decorated in various shades of green and gold.

Honor Line

Twenty sophomores are to form an honor line for the queen's approach to the throne which will be at the south end of the hall.

Members of the queen's court, Miss Sharane Reddick, president of the class, and Mrs. Edys Morrow, chair-

Couple Club Has Turkey Program At White Hall

At the meeting this week of the Couple club of the local Presbyterian church, Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Arnold were elected co-presidents, succeeding Mr. and Mrs. William L. Dawdy.

A turkey dinner served, and a business session followed.

The program consisted of vocal and piano numbers by pupils of Mrs. R. P. Barnett and accordion selections by Randall and Garnetta Herring of Carrollton.

“Thoughts on Thanksgiving” were given by the pastor, Rev. Walter Wilson, a vocal solo by James Wilson, a group picture by the pastor and a vocal duet by Mrs. W. L. Wilson and W. R. McMahon.

Virginia Legion To Sponsor Play, The Light Eternal

Virginia—The Biblical drama, The Light Eternal, will be presented at the Virginia high school gym on Dec. 8-9.

It will be sponsored by the American Legion Post 258.

It is a dramatization of the most important events leading up to, and the giving of the Ten Commandments. Local talent will make up the cast.

To Meet Next Week

The Virginia Woman's club will hold its regular meeting on Friday, Dec. 2 in the Virginia Presbyterian church. Mrs. William Crawford, president, will conduct a business session at 1:45 followed by the program at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Charles C. Hoppin will review “Especially Father,” a biography and humorous book by Gladys Taber, in which she relates a number of episodes in the life of her own father.

Mrs. Robert Virgin, teacher of music in the Virginia Community high and grade school, will present her pupils in several selections. The high school choir will sing and three also will be numbers by both high and grade schools.

Following the program tea will be served in the dining room by the philanthropy committee with Miss Mary Sudbring, chairman.

Music And Review Presented Tuesday To Ashland Women

Ashland—Two piano solos and a book review comprised the program at the Ashland Women's club at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the library club room. Seventy-five members convened there for the harvest luncheon, for which the tables were decorated with bittersweet and fall leaves.

Mrs. W. W. Harding offered prayer before the banquet. Co-chairmen for the affair were Mrs. S. S. Brownback and Mrs. Fred Walbaum. Other assisting hostesses were Mrs. Jack Gardner, Mrs. Francis Newell, Mrs. Howard Douglas, Mrs. William Robinson, Mrs. Carl Orne, Mrs. John Wolaver, Mrs. Fred Gilbert and Mrs. Raymond Allen.

Miss Jean Way, music instructor at the high and grade schools, played the second movement of Grieg's Sonata in E Minor, followed by Schumann's “Traumen.” Mrs. Frank Schriver of Virden reviewed the book “I'm Pleased to Present.”

Two Talks Heard By Rotary Friday

Rev. Clair Malcomson and Dr. S. Clark were the speakers on a varied program during the regular meeting of Rotary Friday noon.

Rev. Malcomson gave a short talk on “Gratitude” in keeping with the Thanksgiving season.

Dr. Clark, a member of the medical staff at Norbury sanatorium, discussed “nervousness,” as it is generally known, and explained some of its causes.

The speakers were introduced by Gerald Richardson, program chairman.

MEN COOKS LEARN THAT PLASTER ISN'T FLOUR

Waverly residents are proud of their high school football squad. The Knights of Pythias decided to give a steak dinner for Coach Lowe and his boys. The menu was altered at the last moment and ham was served.

One of the cooks, all of them men, said the flour was in “a paper sack under the table.” So was a bag of patching plaster. The cooks sampled the steaks, found they were “sort of gritty.”

The gravy was the pay-off. It wouldn't pour. Later in the evening the guest book a steak over his knee, like a piece of kindling.

Editor Alfred H. Hodgson of the Waverly Journal says the women observed, “Men cooks. Hah! Hah! Hah!”
